CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 1,558.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Elk Valley Development Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty thousand dollars, divided into two hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 17th day of September one thousand nine hundred and six.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location or otherwise, and hold in the Province of British Columbia, lands, prospects, timber leases or licences, coal lands, oil and petroleum lands, surface rights and rights of way, or other real and personal property, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, or partly in one way and partly in the other:

(b.) To clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, build on or otherwise work, use or improve any land which may belong to or be acquired by the Company, or any interest therein; to deal with any farm or other products or lands of the Company; to lay out townsites, or in any way subdivide the lands or any property of the Company:

(c.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage or otherwise dispose of or turn to account or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the lands, property or rights of the Company:

(d.) To carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being carried on conveniently in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them:

(e.) To borrow for the purpose of the Company on the security of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures and other securities for the same. se20

(i.) To pay for any property acquired or work done or contract entered into, in pursuance of any of the foregoing powers, the whole of the consideration therefor, whether in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(j.) To enter into any contract, written or verbal, with any corporation or person in any manner and on any terms as to pay or time of payment, or otherwise for the carrying out of the Company's works, contracts, or agreements, or any of them:

(k.) To accept in payment for any contract entered into between this Company and any other company or person, for any work to be done by this Company, money, lands, or any shares, debentures or securities of any other company which in the judgment of this Company or its Board of Directors are deemed to be a fair, bona fide equivalent for the price agreed upon:

(l.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(m.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing, or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company in whole or in part:

(o.) Generally to make, do and execute all such trusts, deeds, covenants, matters and things as the Company may deem expedient, necessary, incidental or otherwise conducive to the advancement of all or any of the above objects, or to the conversion or disposal of any security or property held or acquired by the Company.

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liability of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on :

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit the purposes of this Company :

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking or undertakings of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(j.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, privileges, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade :

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined :

(l.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgage, the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future, real or personal), and whether the same refers to the capital stock paid up or its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities :

(m.) To increase the capital stock of the said Company and to create and issue any part of the capital as preference shares, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends, and otherwise offer ordinary shares as may be declared :

(n.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered in procuring any property for the Company, or in forming the Company, or placing or assisting to place any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company :

(o.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property of the Company :

(p.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others :

(q.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in other companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(r.) To make, accept, endorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments, and to execute and deliver charter parties, bills of lading, and all and every kind of document and paper necessary for the purpose of conducting the objects and purposes of the Company :

(s.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(t.) To build and operate skidways, tramways, railroads, flumes and ditches necessary or convenient for the purpose of conducting the objects and purposes of this Company :

(u.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. se27

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The East Vancouver Land Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a limited company, with a capital of seventy-five thousand dollars, divided into seven hundred and fifty shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 24th day of September, one thousand nine hundred and six.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated :—

(a.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands and buildings in the Province of British Columbia, and elsewhere, and any estate or interest in, and any rights connected with, any such lands and in particular to acquire those certain pieces or parcels of land and premises situate in the District of New Westminster in the Municipality of Burnaby, in the Province of British Columbia, and more particularly known and described as District Lots numbered one hundred and eighty-nine (189) and two hundred and eighteen (218), Group (1), New Westminster District, and to pay for the same either in cash or fully paid-up shares of the Company, and to develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by subdividing the same into lots and selling such lots when so subdivided, laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, street making, paving, draining, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants and others, and the foregoing shall be the principal and main business of the Company :

(b.) To construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control and manage any water works, gas works, reservoirs, roads, tramways, electric power, heat and light supply works, telephone works, pleasure grounds, parks, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to these objects, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control or management thereof :

(c.) To carry on all or any of the following businesses, namely, builders and contractors, wharfingers, merchants and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware and other building requisites :

(d.) To construct, execute, carry out, equip, improve, work, develop, administer, manage, or control public works and private contracts and conveniences of all kinds, which expression in this memorandum includes tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigations, reclamations, improvement, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic and telegraphic and power supply works, and hotels, warehouses, markets and public buildings, and all other works or conveniences of public utility :

(e.) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any contracts, decrees and concessions, for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of public works, private contracts and conveniences, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same :

(f.) To carry on the business of miners, metallurgists, builders and contractors, engineers, ship-owners, ship-builders, merchants, importers and exporters, and to buy, sell and deal in property of all kinds :

(g.) To supply the lands and premises acquired by the Company and the neighbourhood thereof with water, and to carry on the business of a waterworks company in all its branches :

(h.) To sink wells and shafts, and to make, build and construct, lay down and maintain reservoirs, dams, water-works, cisterns, culverts, filter-beds, main and other pipes and appliances, and to execute and do all other works and things necessary or convenient for obtaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring, and distributing water, or otherwise for the purposes of the Company :

(i.) To carry on the business of a power company as defined by the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act," and amending Acts (British Columbia):

(j.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company :

(k.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company :

(l.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects similar to the objects of this Company, or of carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company :

(m.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities, Provincial, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry on, execute and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions :

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company :

(o.) To borrow, or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities :

(p.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business :

(q.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments :

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others :

(s.) To obtain any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests :

(t.) To do all such other things as the Company may think conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them :

(u.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons whether incorporated or administered in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in no way restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

RULES RELATIVE TO PETITIONS AND PRIVATE BILLS.

Petitions for Private Bills.

87. (1) Petitions for Private Bills shall only be received by the House within the first six weeks of the session, and every Private Bill shall be presented to the House within two weeks after the petition therefor has been favourably reported upon by the Examiner or by the Committee on Standing Orders, and no motion for the suspension of this Rule shall be entertained unless a report has been first made by the Committee on Standing Orders recommending such suspension and giving their reasons therefor.

(2) That it be an instruction to all Committees on Private Bills, in the event of promoters not being ready to proceed with their measures when the same have been twice called on two separate occasions for consideration by the Committee, that such measures shall be reported back to the House forthwith, together with a statement of the facts and with the recommendation that such Bills be withdrawn.

Deposit of Bills and Fees.

88. (1) Any person desiring to obtain any Private Bill, shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, at least eight days before the meeting of the House, a copy of such Bill in the English or French language, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same; the translation to be done by the officers of the House, and the printing by the Department of Public Printing, and if such Bill is not deposited by the time above specified the applicant shall, in addition to the charges for printing and translation pay the sum of five dollars for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day before the meeting of the House and the date of the filing of the Bill; but such additional charge shall not exceed in the aggregate in any one case the sum of two hundred dollars.

2. After the second reading of a Bill and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant shall in every case pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes, and a fee of two hundred dollars.

Additional Charges.

The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing, viz.:—

(a.) When any Rule of the House is suspended in reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each such suspension	$100 00
(b.) When a Bill is presented in the House after the eighth week of the session and before the end of the twelfth week	100 00
(c.) When a Bill is presented in the House after the twelfth week of the session	200 00
(d.) When the proposed capital stock of a company is over $250,000 and does not exceed $500,000	100 00
(e.) When the proposed capital stock of a company is over $500,000 and does not exceed $750,000	150 00
(f.) When the proposed capital stock of a company is over $750,000 and does not exceed $1,000,000	200 00
(g.) When the proposed capital stock of a company is over $1,000,000 and does not exceed $1,500,000	300 00
(h.) When the proposed capital stock of a company is over $1,500,000 and does not exceed $2,000,000	400 00
(i.) For every additional million dollars or fractional part thereof	100 00

4. When a Bill is for the purpose of increasing the capital stock of a company, the additional charge shall be according to the above tariff, but shall be charged upon the amount of the increase only.

5. When a Bill is for the purpose of increasing the borrowing powers of a company without any increase in the capital stock, the additional charge shall be $300.00.

6. If any change in the amount of the proposed capital stock of a company, or of any increase thereto, be made at any stage of a Bill, the said Bill shall not be advanced to the next stage until a certificate has been filed with the proper officer to the effect that the payment of the charges consequent upon such change has been duly made.

7. In this Rule the term "proposed capital stock" includes any increase thereto provided for in the Bill.

8. The additional charges provided for in section 3 of this Rule shall also apply to Private Bills originating in the Senate; provided, however, that if a petition for any such Bill has been received by this House within the first six weeks of the session, the additional charges made under sub-sections b and c of section 3 shall not be levied thereon.

THOMAS B. FLINT,

Clerk, House of Commons.

RULES RELATIVE TO NOTICES FOR PRIVATE BILLS.

90. All applications to Parliament for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever, shall be advertised by a Notice published in the Canada Gazette; such Notice shall clearly and distinctly state the nature and objects of the application, and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicants, with the address of the party signing the same; and when the application is for an Act of incorporation, the name of the proposed company shall be stated in the notice. If the works of any company (incorporated, or to be incorporated) are to be declared to be for the general advantage of Canada, such intention shall be specifically mentioned in the notice; and the applicants shall cause a copy of such notice to be sent by registered letter to the Clerk of each county or municipality which may be specially affected by the construction or operation of such works, and also to the Secretary of the Province in which such works are, or may be located; and proof of compliance with this requirement by the applicants shall be established by statutory declaration.

In addition to the notice in the Canada Gazette aforesaid, a similar notice shall also be published in some leading newspaper, as follows:—

A. When the application is for an Act to incorporate:

1. A Railway or Canal Company:—In the principal city, town or village in each county or district through which the proposed railway or canal is to be constructed.

2. A Telegraph or Telephone Company:—In the principal city or town in each Province or Territory in which the company proposes to operate.

3. A company for the construction of any works which in their construction or operation might specially affect the particular locality; or for obtaining any exclusive rights or privileges; or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of others:—In the particular locality or localities which may be affected by the proposed Act.

4. A Banking Company; An Insurance Company; A Trust Company; A Loan Company; or an Industrial Company without any exclusive powers:—In the Canada Gazette only.

B. When the application is for the purpose of amending an existing Act:

1. For an extension of any line of railway, or of any canal, or for the construction of branches thereto:—In the principal city, town or village in each county or district through which such extension or branch is to be constructed.

2. For the continuation of a charter or for an extension of the time for the construction or completion of any line of railway, or of any canal, or of any telegraph or telephone line, or of any other works already authorised; or for an extension of the powers of a company (when not involving the granting of any exclusive rights); or for the increase or reduction of the capital stock of any company; or for increasing or altering its bonding or other borrowing powers; or for any amendment which would in any way affect the rights or interests of the shareholders or bondholders or creditors of the company:—In the place where the head office of the Company is situated, or is authorised to be.

(C.) When the application is for the purpose of obtaining for any person or existing corporation any exclusive rights or privileges or the power to do any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of others:—In the particular locality or localities which may be affected by the proposed Act.

All such notices, whether inserted in the Canada Gazette or in a newspaper, shall be published at least once a week, for a period of five consecutive weeks; and when published in the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba, shall be in both the English and French languages; and if there be no newspaper in a locality where a notice is required to be given, such notice shall be given in the next nearest locality wherein a newspaper is published; and proof of the due publication of notice shall be established in each case by statutory declaration; and all such declarations shall be sent to the Clerk of the House endorsed, "Private Bill Notice."

(D.) Every such notice by registered letter shall be mailed in time to reach the Secretary of the Province and the Clerk of such County Council and Municipal Corporation not less than two weeks before the consideration of the petition by the Examiner or the Committee on Standing Orders, and a statutory declaration establishing the fact of such mailing shall be sent to the Clerk of the House.

(E.) All private bills for acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such bills;—special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from:—Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule, shall be recast by the promoters, and reprinted at their expense, before any committee passes upon the clauses.

THOMAS B. FLINT,
Clerk, House of Commons.
